In addition to the Learning Coach Applicant Background Check, tutor applicants will also be interviewed by the MARC Executive Director. This interview will help determine the tutor's communication style, availability for regularly scheduled tutor sessions, and potential for a good tutor-student match. The MARC Executive Director may bring a potential tutor's information to the MARC Board of Directors as needed.

Applicants may be accepted immediately for training after the Background Check and Tutor Interview. Applicants might be matched at a later date when an appropriate tutor-student match becomes available.
